Of the Roswell Invaders

Friday, October 1, 2010

Coca-Cola Field/Joe Bauman Stadium

Roswell, NM. Roswell Invaders owner, Andrew Dunn, has formally announced the Manager of Roswell Invaders, Chris Paterson. Owner Andrew Dunn stated, "We are pleased to have such great talent managing this team with Head Coach Chris Paterson and Assistant Coach Robert Nordorf. We have signed 9 players, so we are off to a great start!" The Roswell Invaders are part of the Pecos League, which will operate with at least six teams in 2011 Season in Southeastern New Mexico and West Texas.

Chris Paterson: Chris Paterson has playing experience from Little League up to College and an Independent League. He has played all positions on the field, but is best suited as a pitcher and outfielder. Chris recently coached in the California Winter League in Palm Springs, California and will be scouting the league on behalf of the Invaders and the Pecos League.

The Pecos League and the City of Roswell Parks & Recreation Department are finalizing a lease for the 2011 Season.
